

SECRET WHITEMENS BUSINESS

WHO REALLY SHAFTED THE WAGYL... then handed the Developers of the Swan Brewery site, success and tens of millions of dollars. Was it a sitting Labour Politician or a Lobbyist or worse still a Western Australian Politician to action as both..... Don't worry about Julian GRILL he seems to be coming up smelling like a bunch of red roses. Is the WAGYL killer the first W.A. lobbyist to operate whilst a sitting member turns out to be just another MAVERICK.

I have since writing the introduction - had a message left on my phone by Graeme Campbell – former Labour member for Kalgoorlie. Basically admitted that Multiplex – paid for all his expenses in the “Bussing” of people from the country to protest at the Brewery and all other costs. Not a bad part time job for a sitting member.

Campbell also stated the other people who fronted in the Four Corners story were left-wing radicals. Hang on Graeme are you a closest right-wing radical “Lobbyist” funded by Multiplex the only winner. My goodness – funded by Multiplex, bussing people to protest and so on.

Worse than redirecting funds for the establishment of an Aboriginal Political Party to pay off debt you had to yet another Multi-Millionaire Mining Magnate or two!

Where will it all end with the Maverick just back from yet another free flight – France this time.
